My dear Aunt Anne.

My darling Mary has bid us all good bye and by the time this letter reaches you her loving memory will be all that will remain. No suffering and just peaceful sleep. Her two sisters from the West have been with us the past week and she has enjoyed them so much. We were all around her bedside yesterday and her mind was perfectly clear. She did love you so much and your letters have been such a comfort to us.

Much love to you dear Auntie.

Jas. F. Whitney.
